

Langley HS Choir Welcomes New Director in 2022-23

Caroline Player

Caroline Player recently graduated with her Master's degree in Choral Conducting from the Frost School of Music at the University of Miami. While at Frost, she was the recipient of the Graduate School Association AELS Leadership Award in 2021 and served as the Assistant Conductor for the Miami Children's Chorus. Additionally, she was accepted as a Seraphic Fire Singing Scholar for the 2021-2022 season and has taught private voice students and choir through both the MusicReach and Frost Prep organizations on campus. This summer she was hired as an Assistant Conductor for the Advanced Choir through the Children's Voice Chorus Camp. Before moving to Miami, Mrs. Player served as the Choral Director at Warhill High School in Williamsburg, VA for four years. While at Warhill, her students were selected for the ACDA National Honor Choir, VA All-State ensembles, VA Honor Choir, and her top ensemble received superior ratings at their District Assessment each year. In 2017, Mrs. Player attended the ACDA Southern Division Conference and received the Colleen Kirk Award, which is given to educators in their first through third years of teaching for their contribution to music education. Mrs. Player graduated Magna Cum Laude with Honors from James Madison University with an undergraduate degree in Music Education. She has actively sung as a core alto with both the Virginia Symphony Orchestra Chorus and the Virginia Chorale. She is very excited to begin teaching choir at Langley High School this year. Go Saxons!

